TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading -- The Lord is merciful and gracious. Exodus 34:4b–6, 8–9

Responsorial Psalm -- “Glory and praise for ever!” Daniel 3

Second Reading -- Encourage one another and live in peace. 2 Corinthians 13:11–13

Gospel Reading -- God sent his only Son into the world to bring us life. John 3:16–18

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

We come together today to celebrate our triune God, one God and yet three persons. God the Father created the world and everything and everyone in it. God the Son was born into this world, a part of humankind, and chose to sacrifice his life to save us all. God the Holy Spirit was sent into the world by the Father and the Son to be with us always. In our limited imaginations we cannot hope to truly comprehend this sacred mystery, but we join together in praise and thanks to God—Father, Son, and Spirit.

“The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God,” which we hear in the first reading, are not the words of Moses or of any other person, but God’s own words to Moses. From the great and wonderful things God did for the Chosen People to sending the Son to save us all to bestowing the Spirit to be with us always, God has constantly treated us with infinite mercy and grace. Listening to God’s word, let us reflect on how God’s grace and mercy have changed us.

Join in the Dance

Soren Kierkegaard reminds us that life is not a problem to be solved but a reality to be experienced. The same can be said about God. God, who is the Mystery of mysteries, may be beyond our intellectual comprehension but not beyond our experience. Were our human minds really capable of knowing the true essence and depth of God, we would then be “equal” to God and as superior as He is. Just because we cannot fully comprehend or master and control God, it does not mean that His presence is diminished or that he is completely out of our grasp. What it does require is a change of focus. Experiencing the incomprehensible mystery of God requires more “soul work” and less “brain work.” It is only in our souls and not in our brains that a Divine encounter can occur.

One of the best tools we can use to open our souls to an experience of God is metaphor. Imaging that God is “like” something else provides an avenue for encounter and deeper understanding of Mystery. It gives us a focus. One such image or metaphor we can use is that of a well-choreographed dance. It can be truly inspirational. Each movement and step are interconnected with each contributing a piece to the unfolding artistic story. The beholder is caught up in the rhythms, music, and gestures realizing that none of the pieces are dispensable and all are necessary. Through encounter and imagination we can become one with the dance.

The same is true of the Holy Trinity. It, too, is a well-choreographed Divine Dance. Each Person of the Trinity plays a part using unique gestures and movements with each connected to the other Divine Partners. They tell a story of love and devotion. Every movement and step are born of Love, which flows on into eternity and exudes joy! The Divine Dance never ends. God the Father/Mother Creator leads powerfully, yet with gentle love. Creating and recreating, birthing and sustaining, God dances with the compassionate incarnate Son guided by the light and breath of the Holy Spirit. Moving as one They still remain three. They share one heart, one goal, one essence and one purpose — inviting all of creation to join in Their dance and experience Their joy! This joyful Trinity of Persons beckons us to join in Their artistic rendering of Love.

The energy and life of the Trinity flows through all created things. It is a dance of the heart and soul, not of the mind. It has to be experienced and cannot be dissected. It has to be contemplated, not understood. As we stand before the Divine Dance we do so in awe. We are amazed at all that God creates and sustains. The dance moves in the cry of a newborn infant and in the soul of one who has been forgiven. It flows in the cry for justice and in the wounds of the oppressed. The Dance heals and unifies and even transforms common bread and wine into Divinity itself. It circles through the changing of seasons, the cycles of birth and death, and is found in the wisdom one acquires when they find Truth. The Divine Dance continues in the majesty of a mountain, the power and wonder of an ocean, and the vastness of the universe. All different parts with diverse faces but completely one. The Dance never ends.

Spiritual Master and mystic Meister Eckhart reminds us that all God wants is for us to allow God (the Trinity of Persons) to be in us. When God's Word takes flesh in our souls it gets passed through our desires, intentions, virtue, charity, gratitude, joy and the like. God desires to be born in us so that our lives can be choreographed in tune with the Divine Dance itself! Taking a leap of faith, let God be God in us. Meister Eckhart asks us, "what harm can it do you to do God the favor of letting Him be God in you?" We are so accustomed to living out of our minds. It takes great practice and intent to learn to live out of our souls. We must desire God's joyful rendering of Love to be ours.

When we dance with the Trinity, our lives become intently orchestrated and less fragmented. Our minds and emotions can be overly burdened by the temporal worries and concerns of our lives. Our souls, however, can see the bigger picture of the whole of reality and touch eternity itself. Our souls can gain wisdom but they never age. A person can be 110 and still carry the youthful, playful spirit of a 5-year-old within. There is no time in our souls. Often being very fragmented and disjointed, we can easily lose our focus and center. We jump from one distraction or preoccupation to another with nothing connecting the various pieces of our lives. Rather than move with intent, unity, and purpose, we move with random movement, often struggling for what the next step should be. It is no wonder we are often anxious and discontent.

The Divine Dance always leads us to contemplative prayer. It is only there that we can leave ourselves for a bit and open ourselves to God. Living with greater direction and purpose and less fragmentation, we find ourselves much more in tune with the power of faith, hope, and love and more detached from things that can concern and distract us, especially our feelings and needs. The Divine Dance allows us to celebrate the "Now" moments of life when God is trying to keep our attention in sometimes subtle ways. We must leave the past and worry less about the future in order to appreciate the Divine Symphony playing in our souls.

Put on the eyes of faith. Stand in awe of the perfectly choreographed Divine Dance playing around you and experience its beauty and majesty. Become what you see.

—Fr. Mark Suslenko

PRAYER

Trinity of Persons and Loving God,

may the rendering and dance of your love live in my soul.

May I have the courage to step aside and allow you to be who you are, giving birth to yourself within me.

Help me to leave the past behind and worry less about what tomorrow may bring so that I can see your presence as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit dancing in, through, and around me.

Help me see this and be this here and now, in this very moment.

May I pursue less of my own needs and desires and set aside distraction so that I can follow your lead to justice, prudence, temperance and fortitude.

May my eyes and soul be open enough to see your Divine Trinitarian presence resonating and playing in all of creation and in my brothers and sisters.

Amen.

Prayer of the Lady of All Nations

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Father, send now your Spirit over the earth.
Let the Holy Spirit live in the hearts of all nations, that they may be preserved from degeneration, disasters, and war.
May the Lady of all Nations, the Blessed Virgin Mary, be our Advocate. Amen.

Marian Center School

Marian Center School, located next door to St. Thomas University in Miami Gardens, accepts students ages 6 through 21 with developmental disabilities exhibiting mild to moderate cognitive impairment. The Marian Center offers individualized and highly specialized education plans unique to each child. We have certified and experienced special education teachers in each classroom with one specially trained teacher assistant per class. Financial aid is available. ## RESTORE THE CHURCH BUILD THE FUTURE

In late February 2022, after years of simmering tensions and a monthslong buildup of troops on the Russia-Ukraine border, Russian forces invaded Ukraine in a nationwide assault involving ground forces, armored vehicles, warships, and airstrikes. The need for humanitarian aid and pastoral support for the Ukrainian people was great and immediate, especially the millions of internally displaced persons fleeing war-torn areas for other locations within the country. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Subcommittee on Aid to the Church in Central and Eastern Europe was poised to provide immediate aid to Ukraine thanks to well-established, decades-long relationships with bishops and Catholic organizations in the region. Through the generosity of parishioners to the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, nearly 50 emergency aid grants, totaling more than half a million dollars, brought humanitarian aid to victims and refugees in Ukraine, Poland, Slovakia, and Moldova between February and May 2022. For example, the Kyiv archeparchy of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church (UGCC) provided emergency shelter in its cathedral basements to Kyiv residents fleeing bombardment. The UGCC's patriarchal curia was provided with a satellite communications package that allowed key personnel to maintain contact and coordinate priestly ministry and emergency relief to people nationwide. Caritas Ukraine acquired the food, tents, blankets, and personal hygiene products so desperately needed by people who sought aid at relief centers throughout the country with collection funds. Your support for the collection is crucial to helping the Church fulfill its mission to minister to people's spiritual and material needs in Ukraine and more than 25 other countries throughout Central and Eastern Europe, especially in times of serious hardship. More information about the collection and the range of projects it supports can be found at www.usccb.org/ccee.

High School Tuition Discounts

Catholic High Schools normally have two tuition rates, one for ACTIVE Catholics and another for non-Catholics or inactive Catholics.

For example, at Monsignor Edward Pace High School, the tuition rate is as follows:

Active Catholics	$12,950
Others	$13,950

An additional discount is available to families who substantially support their parish. The definition of substantial varies but if the parish has a grade school, the amount of the support to local parish cannot be less than that required to obtain a tuition discount at the parish grade school.

To qualify for a tuition discount (In-Parish rate) at St. Bartholomew Catholic School, a contribution to the Church of $75 per month is required. Therefore, in order for us to sign off for you to obtain an additional discount at a Catholic High School, you must have contributed $900 to St Bartholomew Church in the previous calendar year (2022).
