Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

We are reminded in today’s Gospel what Jesus considered to be the greatest commandments: “Love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind” and “Love your neighbor as yourself.” Let us renew our commitment to these commandments, resolving to follow them each and every day. Let us lift our voices in praise of our God, whose greatest command is simply to love.

How does God want us to act toward others? That question is answered in today’s readings. In Exodus, God tells the Chosen People how to treat strangers, widows, orphans, and others in difficult circumstances, and explains why. Writing to the Thessalonians, Paul says that by imitating the Lord they have become models for other believers. In the Gospel, Jesus teaches the Pharisees which commandment is the greatest. Let us allow God’s word to penetrate our minds, our souls, and our hearts.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Diamond Rule

When I hear the line from the first reading about not molesting or oppressing an alien, I think of the movie E.T., in which the children help the extraterrestrial just because he needs help. What the reading calls aliens are immigrants or newcomers. They lived among the Hebrews but were not Jews themselves. The Lord reminds the people that they were once aliens themselves. They should not make the same mistake the Egyptians did when they mistreated the Israelites. God uses the same logic in commanding them to take care of widows and orphans. Treat them like family, or else your own wives and children will be in the same situation. Immigrants, widows, orphans, borrowers—all must be treated with compassion.

The reason for such compassion should be deeper than just fear of punishment. “Do to others as you would have them do to you,” Jesus said (Luke 6:31). Today’s Gospel has a similar saying: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself” (Matthew 22:39). Jesus called this the second commandment. The first is to love God wholly and completely, heart, mind, and soul. If the second commandment is the Golden Rule, the first might be called the Diamond Rule. If you think about it, in order to keep the first commandment, you have to be keeping the second as well.

Jesus said that whatever you do for the poor, the homeless, the sick, or prisoners, you do for him (Matthew 25:31–46). Mother Teresa could see Jesus in the poorest of the poor. Jesus himself showed compassion even to sinners. We can’t really say we love God if we don’t love the people God created.

So that gives us two reasons to love our neighbor. First, because God lives in other people, so loving God means loving God wherever God is found. Second, God loves them, so if we are to be holy, we must be like God. What does that mean? Remember the saying that “charity begins at home”? That is only true because it is easier to love family and friends, but charity doesn’t end there. If we truly love God, we will extend our charity to those outside our homes. People are probably still rebuilding after the earthquakes in Japan, tornadoes in America, floods in India, and other disasters, and every city has some kind of homeless shelters. You say you love God? Let’s see you love your neighbor.

Breast Cancer Stats and Facts

When it comes to breast cancer, what you don't know can hurt you. These figures reveal the scary truth.

This year, 232,670 new cases of breast cancer will be diagnosed in women.

1 in 8 women who live to be age 70 will develop breast cancer in her lifetime.

Breast cancer accounts for about 30% of cancers in women.

It's the most common cancer diagnosis for women in Utah.

About 85% of diagnoses occur in women with no family history of breast cancer.

But there's good news.

Breast cancer's mortality rate has been declining since 1989, due to early detection and improved treatment.

Physically active women are 25% less likely to develop breast cancer than those who are inactive.

More than 2.8 million people living in the U.S. are breast cancer survivors.

ACT NOW

Breast cancer education and screenings can save up to 37 lives every day in the U.S., according to the World Health Organization. Share this infographic and discuss a screening plan with your doctor.
